

Temporary and Seasonal Campsite, Rustic Cabin, Tent and Resort Cabin Rules, Regulations and Policies

ALCHOLIC BEVERAGES

- Consumption of alcoholic beverages must be confined to the campsite only. Underage drinkers will be prosecuted and/or evicted from the park. Drunkenness, profanity, fighting, indecent exposure or any other deviant or disorderly conduct is strictly prohibited. The use of illegal drugs or excessive use of alcohol will result in immediate removal by local authorities along with arrest.

CHECK-IN/CHECK-OUT

- For tents and cabins, check in is 3 p.m., and check out is 11 a.m. An additional day's charge will result if the site is not cleaned and evacuated by check-out time. Keys must be returned or additional fee will be charged to account. For RV sites, check in is at 1 p.m., and check out is at noon.

CAMPFIRES

- Fires may be built only in approved fire pits or rings. Do not relocate or dig new fire pits. All fires must be extinguished before leaving the campsite or retiring for the night. Violations will be issued for unattended fires. Do not place trash, bottles or cans in fire rings. Do not burn any treated or painted wood. Cutting trees, saplings and shrubs is strictly prohibited. Firewood is available at station 35.

CAMPSITES

- You must stay on the campsite selected at time of reservation, unless your campsite has been officially changed in the office. Your RV's tongue/front must be facing the road. This is a local fire department ordinance requirement.
- Only one camping unit is allowed per site. A maximum of six people per site is allowed. Campers may have a dining canopy/tent in addition to their sleeping accommodations. Sleeping is not allowed in dining tents.
- Only one picnic table is provided per campsite. If additional tables are required for your guests, contact the office. Extra tables, if available, will be provided at a charge of $10 per table for delivery.

CANCELLATIONS

- Cancellations before the day of arrival are subject to an administrative fee equal to one night's rent. Cancellations the day of arrival or early departures are non-refundable.

DISCLAIMERS

- The Park Manager and/or his designee have the authority to refuse admission or evict a camper for failing to follow Park regulations or for demonstrating objectionable behavior while in the Park. Campers MUST be 21 or older to rent a campsite. An adult 21 or older must be on-site at all times during rental period. ID is required for all campers. Management reserves the right to evoke a campsite permit and evict the campers if the campsite generates an internal or external police report. (includes Campground Incident Reports generated by the Sheriff or Police Department)

- Regardless of the type of accommodations, guests and visitors assume all risks and danger incidental to their stay. This includes, but is not limited to, the danger of being injured by insects or animals, of being injured while participating in recreational activities, and/or being injured as a result of inclement weather conditions. Camp Dearborn and its owners, agents and employees are not liable for injuries resulting from such risks and danger. Guests and visitors also assume risks of damage to personal property.
- Camp Dearborn is not responsible for any theft, loss by fire or accident. Any personal property, including—but not limited to—canoes and kayaks, whether on your site or within the park, are stored at your own risk. Use of any of the facilities is strictly at your own risk. Parents will be held financially responsible for any damages to property, facilities etc. caused by themselves or their children.
